BOARD CHAIR’S MESSAGE

I want to thank our many members, donors, and partners who in 2012 helped us build on past accomplishments and stage the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC) for future growth. With the support of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Cumberland County Industrial Development Authority, and our donors, the Army Heritage Center Foundation was able to complete construction of additional on-site infrastructure – parking lots, storm water management facilities, and special event plazas – that will support continued campus expansion. Additionally, we moved the Soldiers Walk to a more prominent location leading to the future entrance to the Visitor and Education Center (VEC). The Foundation can now focus on meeting the Center’s needs for increased program and exhibit space that the second phase of the VEC as well as the Army Heritage Center will provide.

While the Foundation was building infrastructure, USAHEC staff, with the support of Walden Studios and Formations Inc., completed the design, fabrication, and installation of the Soldier Experience Gallery in Phase One of the VEC. This interactive gallery – that appeals to both young and old – highlights the manuscript, photograph, and artifact collection of the Center and superbly tells the Army story through individual Soldier narratives that are highlighted throughout the exhibit. If you have not visited USAHEC since this exhibit gallery opened, please plan to come in the near future. You will be proud of what your support has accomplished. While the Foundation’s role in the development of the exhibit was limited, as members and donors, you should be proud that your financial support now allows the VEC to host this world class exhibit.

The Foundation’s educational programs in 2012 focused on two major areas. The first was the continued growth of the Education Department’s oral history program. This program, that matches veterans with student teams, expanded to new schools. Projects that were produced were incorporated into USAHEC’s Veterans Survey collection, a win-win for the students, the veterans, and future generations of historians. The second was the Foundation’s management of the National History Day in PA program. Now including more than 6,000 students statewide, the Foundation staff again coordinated the program throughout the year and planned and conducted the statewide competition at Cumberland Valley High School in May 2012, with more than 800 students from grades 5 to 12 seeking selection for the national event held in June at the University of Maryland at College Park.
While recognizing student scholars, the Foundation also recognized our members, Soldiers, and those that support Soldiers. At our annual membership dinner held in September 2012, the Foundation recognized as a Living Legend, Command Sergeant Major Jeffrey Mellinger, the last draftee from the Vietnam era to depart active duty. His more than 39 years of service and the qualities that he exhibits should inspire all. The Foundation also recognized, for their contributions to Soldiers and their families with our Boots on the Ground Award, the Army Arlington Ladies who have stood graveside at every Soldier’s funeral at Arlington National Cemetery since 1973. They have assisted the families of Soldiers who come to Arlington to bury their loved ones. When no family is present, they represent the Army family so that no Soldier is ever laid to rest alone. In addition, we recognized former Governor and Secretary of Homeland Security Tom Ridge for his efforts and leadership that supported the development of USAHEC as the project began.

The Foundation must continue to look to the future. While we have much to be proud of, we must redouble our efforts to construct Phase Two of the VEC. In 2012, the campus supported more than 165,000 visitors. Yellow school buses continued to unload enthusiastic youngsters who toured the Army Heritage Trail and the indoor exhibits. Noted historians and families continued to use USAHEC’s rich archival and research collections. However, USAHEC could have done more. Help USAHEC in “Telling the Army story … one Soldier at a time.”

As our Army’s budget faces both near and long term challenges, we need to help the Army reach out so that our citizens understand why an Army and why our Soldiers should be well prepared. You have supported us in the past, and we hope that you will continue to support us in the future. We need to Build on Success and maintain our focus to raise the necessary funds to grow the campus and its programs.

Thank you and please visit.

Since 1999, the Army Heritage Center Foundation has raised $24.9 million to support the development of USAHEC and its programs. The Foundation has expended 76% of these funds to support construction or educational programs.

In 2012, the Foundation committed in excess of $1 million to support infrastructure projects needed to support future construction of VEC Phase Two.

VEC Phase Two will include a second gallery, multipurpose rooms for education programs, and enhanced visitor support services.

2012 DEVELOPMENT HIGHLIGHTS

It was another eventful year for the Foundation and the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC)! Through your generosity, the Foundation’s Development program prospered; USAHEC opened the Soldier Experience Gallery; and construction of infrastructural improvements was accomplished. None of this was possible without your support and dedication to our mission.

The success of the Foundation’s Membership program in 2012 cannot be overstated. Thanks predominantly to our continued partnership with Members 1st Federal Credit Union and to the addition of five new GI members, the Foundation raised more than $70,000 in membership dues for the first time in the program’s history! Membership in the Recruit category was up substantially from the year before, setting a new record in the process! Overall, membership in the Foundation increased by 41% compared to 2011. Retention of over 50% of our 2011 members also contributed mightily to the success of 2012. We have publicly acknowledged each of our 2012 members, less Recruits, in the back of this report.

Seeking public, private, and corporate support for the Build on Success capital campaign to expand the Visitor and Education Center (VEC) was—and remains—the Foundation’s primary objective. In 2012, the Foundation doubled its efforts and concentrated on delivering Phase Two in the near term. Many of you answered our call and rose to the occasion! Thanks to your help, the Foundation is well on its way to completing the Visitor and Education Center.

As usual, the Foundation’s Annual Membership Dinner and Silent Auction was a highpoint for the year. Over 350 guests participated in the function honoring CSM (R) Jeffrey Mellinger’s lifelong military service; the compassionate deeds of the Army Arlington Ladies; and Governor Thomas Ridge’s support of USAHEC during its formative years. The U.S. Army Brass Quintet was once again on-hand to provide the evening’s entertainment.
Another significant fundraising mechanism for the Foundation in 2012 was the sale of commemorative bricks and pavers for USAHEC’s Soldiers Walk. Besides honoring the service of a friend or loved one, proceeds generated from the program are used to enhance the facility. Sales remained strong in 2012, generating over $20,000 for the second consecutive year.

Gifts provided to USAHEC from the Foundation exceeded $1 million during 2012! This includes the construction of a new parking lot, storm water management assets, and two outdoor event plazas—all of which are awaiting formal acceptance by the U.S. Army. Besides financing USAHEC’s external modifications, the Foundation provided another $79,000 to USAHEC primarily in the form of artifact and archival donations or advertising purchases.

Altogether, the Foundation received over $1.5 million in membership dues, campaign contributions, pledge payments, and government grants from more than 550 individual donors, corporate partners, foundations, Veteran associations, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. As a gesture of our appreciation, each donor is recognized within this report.

With the help of supporters like you, we were able to build this.
With your continued support, we will build this.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
2012 EDUCATION DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

This was a transformational year for the Education Department as the staff devoted efforts to refocusing, reformatting, and refining our programs. Over the course of the year, we successfully fulfilled a grant for the U.S. Department of Education, hosted a Ruth Fellow, transitioned the National History Day in Pennsylvania (NHD in PA) State Contest to a new home, and launched the third iteration of our Veterans’ Oral History Project.

For two years, the Education Department has worked to expand the Soldier Stories on our website with the support of a $100,000, two-year grant from the U.S. Department of Education. These online educational materials provide viewers with access to resources from the USAHEC collection. Each Soldier Story contains a historical account in the Soldier’s own words, coupled with articles, photographs, and documents that provide context for each account. From the story of Captain Robert Speer, a chaplain with the 101st Airborne in Vietnam, to Charles C. Perkins, a Private with the 2nd Massachusetts Infantry in the Civil War, these stories provide a first-person perspective on history. We completed the majority of this work in the fall of 2012. Our website now boasts the stories of twenty Soldiers and two Civil War nurses, dozens of sidebar articles, and seven photo galleries. The Foundation will continue to update the website with new Soldier Stories in the coming year.

Our Ruth Fellow for 2012 was Earl J. Catagnus, a former Marine and doctoral student at Temple University. Mr. Catagnus was the 2009 winner of the Professor Russell F. Weigley Award for his paper on the U.S. Army Infantry in the 1930s. Earl spent three weeks at USAHEC continuing his research on the development of Infantry doctrine in the period between WWI and WWII (the interwar period). The Ruth Fellowship honors the military service of Robert L. and Robert C. Ruth and is funded through the generosity of Foundation Board of Directors Vice Chair, Mr. Christopher Gleason.

On May 4th and 5th, more than 1,200 students, teachers, family members, and volunteers assembled at Cumberland Valley High School in Mechanicsburg for the 2012 National History Day in Pennsylvania State Contest. We moved the contest to Cumberland Valley after a change in the academic calendar made the previous venue at Millersville University unavailable. Although initially apprehensive about the new venue, participants were quickly won over by the quality of the facility and outstanding service provided by the Cumberland Valley Visitors Bureau staff that facilitated local hotel accommodations for students, teachers, and judges.

New for 2012 was the inclusion of the Central PA Heritage and Tourism Fair and the Trail Day at USAHEC. The Heritage and Tourism Fair saw a gathering of representatives of local and regional historical and heritage sites who set up tables and displays to meet and interact with students. On Saturday, we inaugurated our first ever Trail Day at USAHEC event. During the morning of May 5th, NHD in PA students and their families took a break from the competition to visit USAHEC, where re-enactors were on hand to populate the exhibits on the Army Heritage Trail and describe the life of the Soldier throughout our history.
The NHD in PA awards ceremony received TV news coverage for the first time in several decades. Seventy-two students qualified for the National Contest, where a group from Philadelphia took 3rd place in the Senior Group Website category.

In the fall, the Foundation began the third year of the Voices of the Past Speak to the Future Veterans’ Oral History Program. In September, forty students from Cumberland Valley High School came to USAHEC for a day of training in the proper methods of interviewing Veterans, in order to collect their oral histories. The students attended classes in the World War II barracks, ate MRE’s in the World War II mess hall, and met with Veterans as they began their journey into oral history.

The students from Cumberland Valley were joined by students from Lower Dauphin High School, who began the program in 2012. In November, Education Director Jeff Hawks traveled to Hummelstown, PA, to meet with and train a group of students.

Our programs were successful in 2012 thanks to the efforts and teamwork of the staff and the support and leadership at the top. Board members worked with the Executive Director to provide guidance, leadership development opportunities, and examples of dedicated service that paid great dividends over the course of the year. Thanks to their efforts, the Education Department stands poised for another great year.

We also thank our numerous donors that included Cumberland Valley Visitors Bureau, Universal Health Services of Pennsylvania, Capital BlueCross, PPG Industries, Inc., Giant Food Stores, Osprey Publishing, Utz Quality Foods, the Pittsburgh Steelers, and the Harrisburg Senators who facilitated our National History Day program and the generous support of the Anne J. Caudal Foundation for their support of the Veterans’ Oral History Program.
