JAPANESE-AMERICANS
(And Canadians)
A Working Bibliography of MHI Sources

CONTENTS
General Sources.....p.1
WWII
- General Sources.....p.2
- Civilian Internment.....p.3
- Military Service.....p.4
- Incidents of Espionage.....p.7
- Japanese Canadians.....p.8
Since 1945.....p.8

GENERAL SOURCES

Japanese-Americans

WORLD WAR II-General Sources

Japanese-Americans

WORLD WAR II-Civilian Internment

See Chap. 7: “Internment Fieldwork: Anthropologists and the War Relocation Authority”

WORLD WAR II-Military Service

Japanese-Americans

Chronicle of Warren Tsuneishi & Norman Ikari, who served w/ the 442nd.

Study of morale in Nisei unit at Military Intelligence Lang School, Ft Snelling, MN, 1945.

Includes War Dept instructions on furlough to Nisei soldiers and III Corps letter on Nisei civilian employees.

Recollections of 38 Nisei members of US Military Intelligence Service, WWII.

See also:
-Bibliography on 422nd Combat Team in Units-Infantry-Regiments
WORLD WAR II - Incidents of Espionage (and Suspected Espionage)

See index.

See Par I, "Internal Security."

See Chap 3, Par I, "Counter Fifth Column and Anti-sabotage Plans."

Raised the subject of espionage.
Japanese-Americans

See also:
-Bibliography on Pearl Harbor in WWII-Pacific.

WORLD WAR II-Japanese-Canadians

SINCE 1945

