

April 24th, 1918.

Dear Mother;

Am on train and am droppin this in Philly. hoping all are well. Will telegraph at once my address. Then come at once. Am trying for a furlough. May perhaps get it.

Received money order and box before I left.

Lovingly,
Howard.