

CAMP HANCOCK

Augusta, Ga.

February 20th, 1918.

Dear Mother and Dad;

Last night received the answer from Dad's first letter. I am glad he liked it and it really was straight from my heart. The lecture touched me very much and I put my thoughts down just as I thought and realized the question. Please give my regards to Mr. Alexander for his remembrance to me. I always liked him very much.

Today it is raining have just started in to wash my clothes this morning and now I can't dry them. This afternoon I am going into town and see the moving picture called "Cleopatra" It is running at the Grand Vaudeville. How is the weather up there? Is it still cold? I wrote a dandy long letter to Ed. Woodfield for the crowd. It was a dandy and you might ask Bill to let you read it. I received a nice letter from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew through the Episcopal Church. I also met a man here by the name of Mr. Mehan, who is a member of the Episcopal Church and their representative to our camp. We had a very nice chat and I am going to the Episcopal church in town.

I am going down to take a shower bath, so will say good bye.

Lovingly,

Howard.
