BOARD CHAIR'S MESSAGE

Build – Promote - Enhance

Your sustained support has allowed us to continue our work with our many partners to build, promote, and enhance the programs of the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC). Our success is a product of your support and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Army Heritage Center Foundation and the Foundation staff; I want to express our appreciation for your sustained support that allows us to continue to enhance “Telling the Army Story . . . One Soldier at a time.®”

2016 was a great year for our partnership with the U.S. Army, our many donors, and supporters who wish to honor our Soldiers and their Families! As I reported last year, we broke ground on a $2.25 million expansion of the Visitor and Education Center in November 2015. I am proud to report that the Army took possession of this new addition – The Hall of the American Soldier – on September 16, 2016. This expansion provides USAHEC an additional gallery and improved facilities to support special programs, Veterans’ reunions, and other educational activities. This new facility is already in use and in 2017, the first exhibit for the new gallery has opened – Good-Bye Broadway, Hello France – a tribute to our Soldiers who answered the call during World War One.

As our major construction program ended, support from some of our regional supporters allowed us to convert the former lobby of Ridgway Hall, an under-used space, into a new gallery. You would be proud to know that this new space will highlight the environment that our Soldiers in Afghanistan and Iraq have operated in. Next door, in the Omar N. Bradley Art Gallery, the Foundation sponsored the exhibit Sleepless Nights: The Midnight Drawings of John A. Cook. John Cook, a sergeant assigned to the 5th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division, fought in Korea from July 1950 to June 1951. After the war, he became a professor of the visual arts and ended his teaching career at Penn State University. He suffered PTSD for much of his life, and when he could not sleep, he drew vivid portrayals of his service in Korea as a testament to his comrades and fallen friends. The Foundation was proud to have sponsored this exhibit and supported the USAHEC staff with a full time intern who helped catalog the collection and prepare the more than 60 sketches for exhibit.

The Foundation also continued its efforts to promote USAHEC by improving the public’s knowledge of campus resources and working to build visitation. As we have in the past, the Foundation continued to promote USAHEC in print and electronic media, as both an educational resource and a tourist destination. The Foundation purchased advertisements in regional tourism publications and assisted USAHEC staff gain regional news coverage of programs and events. In addition, the Foundation continued to expand our electronic footprint on Facebook and Twitter especially for USAHEC’s 2016 Army Heritage Days weekend. We can use your help and ask you to also promote visitation to the Center and use of its resources.

With changes to Army regulations, the Foundation assumed a greater role to enhance the USAHEC collections. We facilitated improvements in the library, archival, and artifact holdings by coordinating the donation of more than 100 collections during the year. While most consisted of library and manuscript collections, we were able to secure an outstanding photo collection from the family of Mathew Batson, a Medal of Honor Awardee, who served in the Philippines. Batson is credited with the creation of the Maccabee Scouts, the forerunner of the Philippine Scouts who loyally served with our Soldiers throughout WWI and WWII. As important, Jeff Hawks, our Education Program Director, undertook an effort with a regional paper to secure the oral history interviews of 31 Vietnam Veterans that were subsequently transferred into the holdings of USAHEC.

The Education Department also continued to refine their programs to enhance support of teacher and student education. Their efforts remain critical, for we need our citizens to appreciate past challenges and successes of our Nation, its Soldiers, and their Families. They continued management of the State-wide National History Day in PA program and with a second year of support from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, sustained the effort to grow the National History Day program in an underserved region of the state.

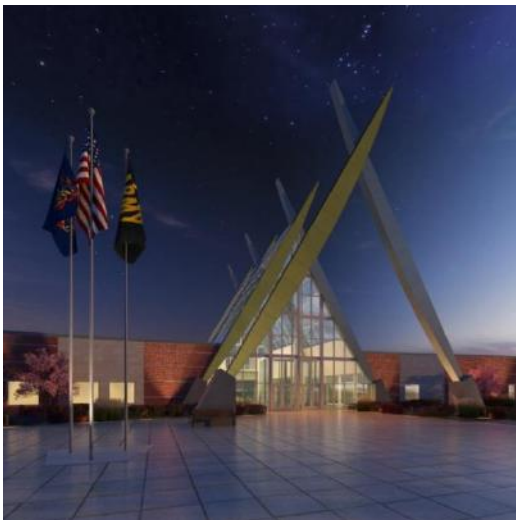

We need your continued support to expand a campus dedicated to honoring our Soldiers, preserving their memories, and educating the Army and the public of our Nation's history and the Soldiers' and Army's role in shaping that history. Please be as generous as you can, please serve as an advocate for USAHEC, and please visit this National resource that you have helped create.

Robert H. Scales, Jr., Ph.D.
Major General, USA Retired

Hall of the American Soldier Expansion Project

This expansion will support the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center's need for additional exhibit, educational program, and conferencing space.

Help us achieve this vision!

2016 DEVELOPMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Thank you for your support! During 2016, you provided over $430,000 in donations, memberships, and special project funds. This enabled us to continue to Build, Promote, and Enhance the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center. Your support allowed us to facilitate construction of the 7,500 square foot expansion and manage the $2 million Redevelopment Assistance Construction Program (RACP) grant awarded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 2014. Please see the listing of our 2016 donors in this report.

Membership soared this year, thanks to our partnership with Members 1st Federal Credit Union, which resulted in more than 9,000 new Recruit-level members this year! Membership at the Minuteman through Doughboy levels remained steady and we welcomed two new GI (Lifetime) members. This report also includes a listing of our members as of December 31, 2016, less the Recruit level.

Visitor and Education Center

Colonel Peter Crean, USAHEC Director, accepts ownership of the Hall of the American Soldier from Colonel Kenneth Adgie, Deputy Commandant, U.S. Army War College.

With construction of the Hall of the American Soldier complete, the recent expansion is most apparent inside the building with the addition of an exhibit gallery, divisible multi-purpose room, expanded café seating. This 7,500 square foot expansion was made possible through a $2 million RACP grant from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and additional funding from Tawani Foundation, The Donald B. and Dorothy L. Stabler Foundation, the G.B. Stuart Charitable Foundation, and the Land O'Lakes Foundation as well as your support which allowed us to manage this project.

USAHEC staff installed the exhibit “Good-Bye Broadway, Hello France”: America in the Era of World War One in the new gallery, which opened April 6, 2017, on the centennial of the United States’ entry into the war. The Hall of the American Soldier currently features large-format images which illustrate life on a Forward Operating Base, taken by Carlisle native Gregory Clark during his deployment to Afghanistan in 2007-2008 with 1st Battalion, 4th Infantry. Groups utilize the multipurpose room and café seating almost daily for programs and training events.

Sleepless Nights: The Midnight Drawings of Korean War Veteran John A. Cook

“Breakfast interlude and I thought I was hot stuff joining up at age sixteen”- An image from the Cook Exhibit

With funding from the Richard von Hess Foundation, the Foundation sponsored the exhibit Sleepless Nights: The Midnight Drawings of Korean War Veteran John A. Cook which opened in June 2016. Cook (1929-2015) served in Korea from September 1950 through June 1951 as an enlisted Soldier with the 5th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division. During his service, his unit advanced to Pyongyang, the North Korean capital. When the Chinese Army intervened in the conflict, they were pushed back well south of the 38th Parallel and suffered significant casualties. The memories of his lost comrades haunted Cook the rest of his life. Throughout his life, as a way of dealing with his memories when he could not sleep, he sketched images of his combat experiences. Cook went on to a successful career as an artist, specializing in sculpting medallions, and teaching sculpture at Penn State.

Forty-three of Cook’s sketches were included in the exhibit which was curated by USAHEC art curator Jim McNally and intern Allie Stabile. The Foundation published an exhibit guide which is available for sale in the USAHEC museum store. The Cook estate recently gave the Foundation a collection of more than 100 additional sketches along with other materials.

Ridgway Lobby Renovation

The Foundation was able to maximize the expansion construction by concurrently renovating the Ridgway Hall lobby, which served as USAHEC’s main entrance until the opening of the Visitor and Education Center in 2011, so that the space could be repurposed. With funding from The Donald B. and Dorothy L. Stabler Foundation, The Josiah W. and Bessie H. Kline Foundation, Inc., and the G.B. Stuart Charitable Foundation, the construction crew removed the security desk and decorative features to open up the space. USAHEC staff installed the exhibit On Patrol which recognizes Soldiers’ service in Iraq and Afghanistan.

2016 EDUCATION DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Veterans, friends, and family gathered for the inaugural Veterans' Cafe event at USAHEC in March.

The Foundation initiated our newest program, the Veterans' Cafe, on March 19, 2016 at USAHEC, with an event marking the 25th anniversary of operation Desert Storm. On June 6, at Hoffman Funeral Home in Carlisle, we marked the anniversary of D-Day with a breakfast and presentation from Mr. Henry Ferri, who went ashore on Omaha Beach in the early hours of the Normandy Invasion. We rounded out the year with two additional events, one at Cumberland Crossings in Carlisle, and one at Country Meadows in Mechanicsburg. Our featured Veterans included COL (R) Rude DeFrance, COL (R) Don Bletz, Mr. Joe Boslet, and Mr. Norman Fuggitt. As the year wound to a close, Humana came on board as a Founding Sponsor, joining our other founding sponsor, Hoffman Funeral Home and Crematory. We look forward to continuing the program with a full slate of events in 2017. Foundation members who would like to be included on the email list for event information, or who are interested in sharing their stories as featured Veterans for an event, should contact the Education Department.

In a series of related efforts, the Department had significant success with our efforts to collect and preserve oral histories. Students in the Veterans' Oral History Program continue to make progress recording and preparing interviews for posterity. Education Director Jeff Hawks also concluded the last of 26 in-depth interviews with Vietnam Veterans as part of a joint effort with Carlisle's newspaper, The Sentinel to record, preserve, and honor the stories of Vietnam Veterans from the local area.

A camper takes aim with the M-240 simulator in the Soldier Experience Gallery.

The campers attending the Soldier Experience Living History Adventure Camp displayed remarkable fortitude, enduring a summer of record heat and humidity. Despite the 90+ degree days, the campers soldiered on, learning about the history of the Army, the tactical and strategic challenges of the Cold War, and the training Soldiers endured as they prepared to meet the Soviet threat. New drills and activities this year included maneuvering against a sniper and water wars, as well as such perennial favorites as trench clearing and force-on-force exercises like “capture the chicken”.

Other onsite programs included holding workshops, including a program for teachers on World War I in January and a November training session conducted by National World War II Fellow Steff Chortanoff, who works as a gifted support teacher in Lower Dauphin School District. The staff also conducted a well-received leadership training program for Deloitte using material from FM 22-100 and the story of Medal of Honor recipient SFC Sammy Davis.

The Foundation continued our tradition of hosting film screenings with two special events. The first was a screening of the Oscar-nominated Danish film, *A War, the story of a Danish commander accused of causing civilian deaths as a result of an airstrike he authorized, allegedly without proper identification of his target. The film dramatizes the challenges Soldiers face on the modern battlefield, as well as the contributions of our allies to the Global War on Terror. The second event was a panel discussion following a screening of the documentary film Thank You for Your Service. The film explores the mental health challenges that arise from military service from the perspective of both the Soldiers who are suffering and the institutions working to provide them with the treatment and services they need.

Thanks to a grant from the Carlisle Barracks Spouses' Club, we were able to bring elements of the Medal of Honor Society's Character Education program to the students at Lamberton Middle School in Carlisle. This program uses stories of valor from Army history to engage students in activities that foster discussion of the nature and importance of character.

Jeff Hawks continued regular appearances on the local noontime program “Good Day PA” on Harrisburg's ABC 27, highlighting the military heritage of South Central PA through the stories of local Soldiers. He also appeared on a segment of Comcast Newsmakers discussing the National History Day in Pennsylvania (NHD in PA) program.

In March, the NHD in PA winners from 2015 gathered for the opening of the NHD in PA Student Showcase at the State Museum of Pennsylvania.

The 2016 NHD in PA program concluded with the successful reinvigoration of the long-dormant NHD in PA Region 5 in central Pennsylvania. Under the Foundation's leadership, the Central Intermediate Unit #10 formed a partnership with Lock Haven University to manage the region. More than 60 students from 12 schools attended the Region 5 Contest in February, managed by the Foundation. Plans are well underway to transfer full control of the region to the partnership in 2017 and beyond.

More than 1,200 students, teachers, parents, and volunteers converged on Millersville University for the NHD in PA State Contest with 58 students selected to represent Pennsylvania at the National Contest. Pennsylvania had another outstanding year as four projects received awards at the National Contest, including a 3rd Place finish, two Outstanding Entry awards, and the Equality in History Prize for the Junior Division.

Students in our Internship Program provided outstanding support for our programs. Justin Wilkins from Penn State Harrisburg provided support for NHD in PA as an Accounting Intern, helping process payments and maintaining records. Nicholas Borgaonkar, a Penn State student, exploring options for a military career, provided support by digitizing photographs for Foundation efforts. Michael Hickey returned for another stint as Counselor-in-Training for the summer programs and has committed to a final year in the position for 2017 before leaving for college. Cumberland Valley High School student Vishnu Viswanathan also interned with the department over the summer, undertaking an independent study into gas warfare in World War I. Jacob Compton, a home-schooled student from a family stationed to Carlisle Barracks, spent a semester researching riverine operations in Vietnam, a project that culminated with an oral history with Jacob's grandfather, who himself served in the Mekong Delta, Vietnam.

In addition to enhancing their course of studies, our interns work on projects that support updates to the Soldier Stories on our website. 2016 saw the addition of four new stories to the website. They are:

- Lieutenant Colonel Terry Walters, brigade surgeon, Operation Restore Hope, Somalia, 1992 and 1993. Her story includes a first person account of the aftermath of the attack on a Pakistani armored column on June 5, 1993; part of the ramp-up to the Battle of Mogadishu in October of 1993.
- Colonel Benjamin Purcell. A Korean and Vietnam War veteran, Colonel Purcell spent five years as a prisoner of war of the North Vietnamese after his helicopter was shot down in February of 1968. Stationed at Carlisle Barracks after his release, COL Purcell delivered a Veterans Day address to the students at Carlisle High School in 1973, the text of which is included in his story.

- Sergeant Joe Boslet. Joe was a counter-intelligence specialist who served with MACV, Advisory Team 67, in Phuc Long. Joe now volunteers at USAHEC as a docent.
- Colonel (Ret.) Walter “Joe” Marm. COL Marm received the Medal of Honor for his actions on the first day of the Battle of Ia Drang, for single handedly taking out a machine gun entrenched behind a termite mound that had pinned down his platoon as they tried to advance to relieve a platoon that had become encircled by the enemy.

These Soldier Stories provide first-hand accounts from the garrisons, guard posts, and battlefields where American’s sons and daughters carry on the United States Army’s tradition of service and sacrifice. Although these stories represent only a portion of our overall activity, they serve as a reminder of the importance of our task of enhancing the capacity of the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center to honor their service, preserve their history, and education the Army and the public about their contributions to our nation’s history.
