BOARD CHAIR'S MESSAGE

Build – Promote - Enhance

Build on Success! This slogan defines our steady support to the continued growth and construction programs at the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC). Last year, I reported that the Foundation had completed construction of the Hall of the American Soldier and the renovation and conversion of the former Ridgway Hall lobby into a gallery. So as not to rest on past successes and to continue the expansion of USAHEC, the Foundation has agreed to respond to the leadership of the U.S. Army War College and USAHEC who express the need for continued expansion of the Hall of the American Soldier. The board, staff, and I hope you will join us as you have done so often in the past.

Your sustained support has allowed us to enhance “Telling the Army Story . . . One Soldier at a time. ®” Using the space that you helped provide, USAHEC opened two new exhibits last year. In the first quarter of 2017, they opened On Patrol in the former Ridgway Hall lobby area. This immersive exhibit sought to allow the public to gain an appreciation of the physical environment that our Soldiers have operated in since 2001. In April 2017, in the new gallery area of the Hall of the American Soldier, USAHEC unveiled Good-Bye Broadway, Hello France -- a tribute to our Soldiers who answered the call during World War One. Developed and fabricated entirely on site, the engaging exhibit is a testament to the quality of the USAHEC collections and the USAHEC staff.

The Foundation’s support to promoting USAHEC as a public venue continued. We promoted the campus in regional tourist publications but added some new wrinkles in 2017. The most productive was the use of Facebook to promote Army Heritage Days. Over the month long advertising program, more than 350,000 individuals were exposed to information and when combined with other media purchases contributed to a record 10,000+ visitors over two days. Our promotion of USAHEC, when combined with word of mouth advertising and USAHEC’s own outreach efforts brought more than 232,000 visitors to the campus in 2017. Thank you for your support which is significantly enhancing “Telling the Army Story . . . One Soldier at a time ®” and increasing the public’s awareness of our Soldiers’ and our Army’s contributions.

The Foundation’s efforts to enhance history education and the public’s understanding of our Soldiers’ and Army’s contribution also continued in 2017. With your support, the Foundation once again managed the National History Day (NHD) program which involved more than 300 schools and 12,000 students from across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania students at the national competition won more awards than in previous years and exceeded expectations. Our teacher workshops allowed regional teachers to gain an appreciation of history, and our high school veterans oral history program helped build bonds between generations while performing a significant educational function.

We also sustained our outreach to Veterans. The Vet Café Program reached more “old Soldiers” and expanded its geographical reach to include programs that incorporated Fort Indiantown Gap and the National Cemetery located adjacent to the post. Our Membership and Recognition Dinner in November was special as we honored Bill Beck, a Soldier of the Battle of the Ia Drang Valley, and Joe Galloway who authored a book with LTC Hal Moore on the battle and served as a longtime advocate for our Soldiers’ contributions. We also supported programs associated with the Ken Burns’ Vietnam documentary and provided subsequent opportunities for Veterans to discuss their reaction to the Burns’ work.

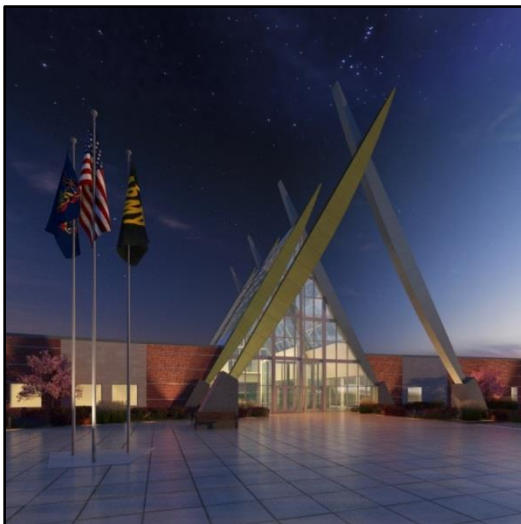

However, we cannot rest on our laurels, and we cannot support the continued growth of the USAHEC without you – our members and donors. I know we have asked many times for your support; we still need it. I would ask one other favor. Help enlist others to join with us to build on our past success and continue to grow the finest organization and location that proudly tells the contributions of our Army and our Soldiers.

2017 DEVELOPMENT HIGHLIGHTS

2017 was an exciting year! The Foundation received its first legacy gift and also received a significant donation that will endow the study and preservation of the history of the U.S. horse cavalry!

We welcomed five new lifetime members: Kathryn Condon, Halfaker and Associates, Ken and Lucy Hicks, Anthony Manganiello, and Dorothy Pecora. Our membership at the Minuteman through Doughboy levels held steady. We are most grateful for your support and have included a list of members as of December 31, 2017 as a public thank you. We would ask that you inform your friends and colleagues about the work you make possible with your support of the Foundation and encourage them to become involved.

New Endowment

The U.S. Cavalry Memorial Association granted the Foundation $500,000 to establish an endowment which will fund research on horse-mounted troops and cavalry, to preserve the legacy of these soldiers.

Mike Perry, Foundation Executive Director; Jim Ottevaere, U.S. Cavalry Memorial Association President; Joseph Capita, Foundation Board Secretary; COL Geoffrey Mangelsdorf, USAHEC Director.

Legacy Giving

The Foundation received its first legacy gift in 2017 from a charitable remainder trust established by COL Marguerite Tussey, USA Ret. a number of years ago. This gift will be used to create an endowment that in the future will facilitate the work of the Foundation.

If you would like to discuss ways you can create a legacy of your service and help us in “Telling the Army story . . . One Soldier at a time”, please contact us at (717) 258-1102.

Generous Donors

Thank you to all of you who generously support the Army Heritage Center Foundation! You make it possible for us to build, enhance, and promote the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center. Please see the full list of 2017's donors in this report.

We want to especially thank Members 1st Federal Credit Union for its continuing support of the Foundation. We are honored to be one of their nonprofit partners.

Grants

We are fortunate to have generous foundations supporting our work. We would especially like to thank two regional foundations.

Hall of the American Soldier. We needed to update the design plans, originally created in 2009 for the Visitor and Education Center, to ensure that the construction of the Hall of the American Soldier would most effectively and efficiently meet the Army's needs as well as meet current construction codes and Army regulations. The G.B. Stuart Charitable Foundation and the Stabler Foundation both generously supported this project. Additionally, The Stabler Foundation also awarded us a grant to sustain our operations.

We received two grants to continue the design process for the next phase of the

Army Birthday Dinner – June 3, 2017

Preserving and promoting the history of our Army is why the Foundation supports the development of the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center. As part of the Army Birthday Dinner, we recognized and commemorated the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Military History Reference Collection. That 1967 effort grew into the U.S. Army Military History Institute and in 2001 evolved into the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center. Dr. Richard Sommers, the longest tenured staff member of all these organizations and who served as Chief of Archives and Chief History, gave the keynote address. Five former MHI directors (Tom Sweeney, Hal Nelson, Tom Vossler, Mike Perry, Tom Hendrix, and the current USAHEC director, COL Peter Crean) attended the dinner.

Our celebrations are made more special thanks to our generous sponsors and donors. Greg Attorri, BAE Systems, Bimbo Bakeries, Joe Capita, Kathryn Condon, F&M Trust, George Fischer, Gannett Fleming, Julie Germany, Glatfelter Insurance Group, Chris Gleason, Lois Kielkopf, Michael Littenberg, M&T Bank, R.S. Mowery & Sons, James Oakes, Mike Perry, Sonny and Carol Sloan, Peter Ressler, and Diane Tokarsky all supported the 242nd Army Birthday celebration.

Membership and Recognition Dinner – November 4, 2017

Each fall around Veterans Day, to honor past Soldiers, supporters of Soldiers, and supporters of USAHEC, the Foundation hosts a Membership and Recognition Dinner. This year, we sought to honor and recognize those who deployed early during the Vietnam War and those who supported those Soldiers. Bill Beck, an enlisted machine gunner who fought with the 1/7th Cavalry at the Battle of the Ia Drang Valley in November 1965, and Joe Galloway, who fought with them and told their story as a reporter and as a co-author of We Were Soldiers, were honored. Additionally,

Don Mowery and his construction firm were honored for their support of our construction program.

2017 EDUCATION DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

2017 marked another year of program development as the Education Department continued to refine and expand our offerings. Of particular note, we successfully expanded the Veterans' Cafe program with the support of our sponsors, inaugurated the Walk With a Veteran program, guided students in the National History Day in Pennsylvania program to success at the national level, and revised and enhanced the curriculum for the Soldier Experience Living History Adventure Camp.

The Education Department hosted nine Veterans' Cafe events thanks to the support of our founding sponsors Hoffman Funeral Home and Humana and our silver sponsor Celtic Healthcare. More than three hundred people attended the events, where Veterans shared their stories of service and sacrifice. The programs included a bus trip to tour the Pennsylvania National Guard Museum at Fort Indiantown Gap and the National Cemetery at Indiantown Gap.

The field of honor at the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.

Guests at the Veterans' Cafe enjoy breakfast in the Fort Indiantown Gap Community Center prior to touring the National Cemetery at Indiantown Gap.

The Veterans' Cafe provides opportunities for veterans of all services and eras to gather to share their stories and is open to veterans and their friends and family. Foundation members who are interested in attending should contact the Education Department to be added to the mailing list. Members who are interested in sharing their stories are especially welcome.

Humana and Giant Food Stores helped the Foundation mark National MIA/POW Day through the Walk with a Veteran program. More than 200 students teamed up with over 50 veterans, toured the Army Heritage trail and exhibits at USAHEC, viewed the exhibits, and learned about history and military service from the men and women who lived through it. During the welcome ceremony, Foundation staff presented pins marking the 50th anniversary of the Vietnam War to Vietnam veterans, and local Navy veteran Don McClarren, a crewman on the USS Pueblo, spoke about his experience as a prisoner in North Korea. Feedback from attendees was overwhelmingly positive, and the event received coverage in local and regional media.

In addition to support from Hoffman Funeral Home, Giant, and Humana, the Education Department also received contributions from the Avalon Insurance Company, First National Bank of Pennsylvania, and the M&T Charitable Foundation (M&T Bank), through the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program (EITC). The Foundation is designated as an Educational Improvement Organization by the Commonwealth and is therefore eligible to receive charitable donations from qualified Pennsylvania corporations. These contributions support our approved Innovative Educational Programs, primarily National History Day in Pennsylvania, Schools to Career internships, and the Veterans Oral History Program. We also received numerous donations from various posts of the American Legion, AmVets, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Vietnam Veterans of America to support our on-going efforts to collect oral history interviews of Army Veterans.

More than 1,200 students, teachers, parents, and volunteers attended the 2017 National History Day in Pennsylvania State Contest in May at Carlisle High School. Sixty-two students were selected to represent Pennsylvania at the National Contest at the University of Maryland in June. Once again, Pennsylvania's students stood out amongst a strong field of competitors, winning more than their share of accolades. Although PA students represented just 2% of the competing students, they brought home four medals, including a National Championship, or approximately 4.5% of the awards.

Within Pennsylvania, the Foundation helped transition three NHD in PA Regional Contests to new institutions, served as acting Regional Coordinating body for a region, and continued to provide ongoing support to the remaining nine regions as they implemented their programs. Once again, the Pennsylvania Department of Education provided contractual support to the program in recognition of the value and success of NHD in PA.

Two campers provide security while their squad crosses a danger zone.

Sixteen campers attended two sessions of the Soldier Experience Living History Adventure Camp. Veterans of the late Cold War would recognize much of the camp curriculum, which is based on the ARTEPS and other training doctrine of the 1980s. Campers engage in a series of drills and exercises based on Army Infantry training manuals, modified for safety and practicality, and designed to introduce them to individual Soldier skills and small unit tactics.

They then implement what they have learned through a series of free-form, open-ended exercises. Framed by a Cold War scenario, the campers must maintain vigilance for OPFOR (Opposing Forces) activity, patrol their area of operations to gather intelligence, interpret what they find to determine enemy intentions, and react accordingly.

The new scenario incorporated Cold War themes and provided a rich storyline for the campers, with opportunities to develop their leadership and teamwork skills as they strive for a positive outcome. Interns and Counselors in Training (CITs) played a critical role in the success of the summer camp program, as they attended meetings throughout the year to leading up to the camps to help plan and implement new aspects of the program.

We also continued to partner with the Cumberland Valley High School to conduct the Veterans Oral History program. More than a dozen students signed up this year to meet with veterans to interview them and collect their stories.

Our professional development workshops continued apace via our partnerships with Echoes and Reflections, an organization dedicated to Holocaust education, and the Capital Area Intermediate Unit (CAIU). With Echoes and Reflections, we conducted a program that reunited Holocaust survivor Edith Vidos with Dorothy Pecora, a nurse who was among the camp liberators who rescued Ms. Vidos. Ms. Vidos was accompanied by her brother George Gabor, also a Holocaust survivor.

With the CAIU, we conducted a series of programs working with gifted support teachers. We introduced them to USAHEC and discussed ways gifted students could benefit from the opportunities USAHEC provides. We expect to continue this partnership into 2018.

Our Education Programs offer opportunities for members of the Foundation to get involved. We invite you to attend a meeting of the Veterans Cafe, sit with a student to record your oral history, or to recommend a student for an internship. We welcome your support as we strive to Tell the Army Story... One Soldier at a Time!
