The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center

The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC) is an integral part of the U.S. Army War College that supports and extends the intellectual efforts to a wide audiences. USAHEC engages, inspires, and informs the Army, the American people, and global partners with a unique and enduring source of knowledge and thought. As the place of choice for innovative research, analysis, collaboration, and education—physically and virtually, USAHEC is on the forefront of learning and educational methodology. The collection and human expertise together are a unique national treasure. The rich holdings of knowledge, memory, and connections afford patrons and visitors an unparalleled perspective and ability to draw upon past lessons and apply them towards future challenges.

Army Heritage Center Foundation

The Army Heritage Center Foundation supports the development and expansion of USAHEC and its programs, works to sustain and enhance the Center's ability to inform and educate the American public on contributions of Soldiers and the U.S. Army to our nation's history.

Corporate Leadership Council

Your Commitment

CLC membership offers companies an opportunity to build, broaden, and strengthen their support for the history of the U.S. Army and the American Soldier. CLC members are invited to meet annually at the Corporate Leadership Council Annual Forum and discuss how, as business and corporate leaders, they can engage in making a difference. Members are encouraged to make a financial contribution annually at their capacity and can choose from three levels of involvement.

Chairman's Circle - $30,000

Command Circle - $20,000

Affiliates - $15,000

Corporate Leadership Council

Invitation

You are invited to be part of the Corporate Leadership Council (CLC) of the Army Heritage Center Foundation (AHCF). The CLC is a partnership between national business and corporate leaders and AHCF. Comprised of senior executives and corporate leaders, the CLC, along with the AHCF Board of Directors and the National Advisory Council Honorary work to ensure that AHCF is successful in its role as the lead agency supporting the development and expansion of the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center.

The CLC is critical to AHCF's support of USAHEC preserving the memories of Soldiers and their Families, honoring their service, and telling their stories one Soldier at a time. Your membership on the CLC makes a difference to those who serve our nation and the discovery of their service for generations to come.
