

U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center
950 Soldiers Drive
Carlisle Barracks, PA 17013-50212
10 Apr 2013

Forts and Camps: Puget Sound, Washington

PUGET SOUND, WASHINGTON

Anderson, Karen S.T. "The Impact of World War II in the Puget Sound Area on the Status of Women and the Family." PhD dss, U WA, 1975. 239 p. HD6083.W2.S55.

Bedwell, Jack. "The 19th and 20th Century Defenses of Puget Sound." Periodical 17 (Jul 1991): pp. 42-51. Per.

Gibbon, John. "Puget Sound-A Sketch of its Defenses." Journal Military Service Institute US 10 (Sep 1889): pp. 409-20. Per.

Gregory, B.J. Keepers at the Gate. Port Townsend, WA: Port Townsend, 1976. 367 p. F897.P9.G7.

Shaw, Harry B. Papers. 3 Boxes. Arch.
Includes materials from his employment with Navy Department at Puget Sound, 1902-03.

Slater, John E. "Farewell to Camp Davis." Coast Artillery Journal 87 (Sep/Oct 1944): pp. 53-55. Per.

U.S. Board of Engineers for Rivers & Harbors. Report on the Vulnerability of Ports in the Puget Sound Area, Including Port Angeles, Olympia, Tacoma, Seattle, Everett, and Bellingham, Washington. n.p., 1954. 64 p. UA929.8.S6.R46.

See also:

- Forts Casey & Lawton (Bibs-Forts)