

GUN SALUTES

A Working Bibliography of MHI Sources

Boatner, Mark M., III. Military Customs and Traditions. NY: McKay, 1956. p. 48. U766.B572.

Edwards, Thomas J. Military Customs. Aldershot, England: Gale and Polden, 1961. pp. 204-05.
U355.G7.E48.
On the three volleys.

Instructions for Mounting, Using and Caring for 3-Inch Saluting Gun and Mount, March 3, 1905, Revised January 19, 1906, Revised January 29, 1907. Wash, DC: GPO, 1910. 13 p.
UL303.A53.G.I58.

Instructions for Salutes and Ceremonies at Seacoast and Other Posts Provided with Artillery. Wash, DC:
GPO, 1902. 13 p. U353.I57.

Lovette, Leland. Naval Customs, Traditions & Usage. Annapolis, MD: Naval Institute, 1980.
pp. 40-42. V310.L68.

Moss, James A. Origin and Significance of Military Customs. Menasha, WI: Banta, 1917.
pp. 34-36. U766.M6.

Payne, Harry. "Saluting in the Time of King George IV." Cavalry Journal [British] (Jul 1920): p. 222.
Per.

Rivers-MacPherson, E.R. "Why 21 Guns for Royalty." Canadian Army Journal (Apr 1956):
pp. 100-01. Per.

"Salute!!!" Field Artillery Journal (Mar/Apr 1982): pp. 26-31. Per.
Details of a salute-firing battery's [B/2/2FA] procedures, with photographs.

U.S. War Dept. General Orders No. 70, dated 23 Jul 1867. 1 p. MilPub-GO.
Prescribes morning and evening guns.

_____. General Regulations for the Army of the United States... Wash, DC: Gideon, 1841.
pp. 88-89. UB501.
Prescribes # of guns for various dignitaries.